Job offer

OFFER VLC – 186
Language assistant

Presentation of the company

It is an educational center with experience in the implementation of educational and recreational activities. They offer a wide aspect of teaching, training, communication, leisure, sports and social. Their practical approach encourages students to speak English in everyday situations. The team is always ready to help and its goal is to offer customized and high-quality assistance to the students enabling them to not only enjoy English program but also to achieve success. They place great importance on the positive atmosphere created between students and their tutors, and they currently need trainees to work as English teacher assistant.

Description of the internship

Start: October 2014
Duration: 6 months
Department: Pedagogical department
Hours: 20 hours / week
Remuneration: 100 euros / month
Location: Valencia / Spain

Profile of the student

Studies: English philology / Pedagogy / Early childhood studies
Languages/level: English (C1/C2), Spanish (Not required)

Tasks of the training

- Language assistance: practice English speaking, writing and listening
- Prepare educational material for English lessons
- Support pupils
- Analyze the progress of the children
- Organize different types of entertainment events for the children